THE NEW HOMESTEAD LAW.

Senator Pomeroy's bill to secure homesteads to actual settlers on the public domain, which passed the Senate last year, passed the House March 13th. It is one of the most important measures concluded by the present Congress. It practically annuls the pre-emption laws and substitutes the old homestead law, with provisions for commutation of the time required for the settlement and occupation of the public lands. Sections 10 and 15 inclusive of the pre-emption Act of 1861 and the Acts amendatory thereof were repealed; also, the Act of 1862, the Act amendatory thereof, and the Act for the disposition of lands in Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Arsansas and Florida, of 1866. Section 2 preserves the provisions of the pre-emp-AUTHORIZED BY preserves the provisions of the pre-emp-tion Act as to personal qualifications and the amount of land to be acquired, and the amount of land to be acquired, and suthorizes settlers on unappropriated public lands not mineral or saline, to enter lands covered by settlement not exceeding one quarter section held at the minimum price of $1 25, or eighty acres of land held at $2 50 per acre. Section 3 pavides that application shall be made within two months afther settlement, or from the receipt of the township plat at the district Land Office; affidavit to be made similar to that of the old pre-emption land law; the certificate or patent not to be issued until after the expiration of five years from the date of setnot to be isseed until after the expira-tion of five years from the date of set-tlement. Section 5 provides that par-ties owning and residing upon public lands at the date of this Act, may enter adjoining unappropriated lands, which in the aggregate with the land already owned and occupied, shall not exceed in the aggregate with the land already owned and occupied, shall not exceed 160 acres of the minimum lands, or proportionately less of the double minimum lands—a residence upon the adjoining farm not being required, but only its use and improvements in good faith. Section 7 provides that lands so acquired shall not be liable for debts contracted prior to the issue of the certificates. Section 9 provides for the continuance of homestead rights in the wife after abandoument by her husband. Section 10 provides that only one entry under this Act shall be made; provided, that no person shall be debarred on account of benefits received from the old pre-emption law, excepting in case, where such pre-emption has been consumated under the homestead law. Section 14 allows a commutation of the five years settlement by payment after eighteen months instead of six, as did the old law. Section 16 recognizes the joint entry in accordance with the late ruling of the Department of the Interior. Section 17 allows the entry of tracts not exceeding forty acres for mechanical, commercial or manufacturing purposes, upon proof of the fact of occupation for one year's time, for which application shall be made the same as in other cases. Section 18 preserves the old provision as to double minimum prices. The Act took effect January 1, 1873.
